farm horses, and have maintained. through his children, the farmer's interest in sport.

Having been wrong on all these counts the Prophets have now turned to the number of people participating in organised foxhunting-in this county about one one hundredth of one per cent of the populationsaying that public opinion will never allow it to survive. On this a British Masters comments "If any sport had to depend for its existence on the numerical support of those who do not partake of it, then no sport would exist at all." Actually, the number of pictures, prints, wallpapers, calendars, Christmas and Greeting Cards purchased each year by the American public which illustrate the sport of foxhunting is positively astronomical.

In spite of the changes wrought by the Industrial Revolution, foxhunting continues to provide a pageantry unrivalled by any other sport. and that combination of science and excitement which, from the very dawn of history, has inspired in Kings and peasants alike a passion for the chase.

THE DOOM OF FOXHUNTING

For well over a hundred years foxhunting has been a favorite field for the Prophets of Doom. Cries of forboding arose with the advent of the railroads. When woven and barbed wire first mended the gaps in hedges and rail fences the resulting wails were piteous to hear. As automobiles replaced carriages, it was gloomily predicted that hunter breeding would become so unprofitable that no one could afford a cross country horse. The tarred roads which followed would be so slippery that hunting would become impossibly hazardous, while gasoline fumes would assuredly prevent hounds from ever running a fox more than a few fields. Animal lovers painted heart-rending pictures of whole packs being electrocuted as electricity began to replace steam on the railroads. The growing practice of spreading lime and fertilizer on grasslands during the late autumn appeared to be an unsurmountable barrier to scent. When high wages forced the replacement of work horses with tractors, the wiseacres were equally sure that farmers would be unable to hunt, would lose all interest in the sport and would close their land. And, as State Game Commissions built up deer herds so that the consequent insufficiency of their natural mountain range forced them down into farming and hunting countries, the end of foxhunting once more was just over the next hill.

Fortunately the Prophets have been confounded. Foxes, hounds and their followers have shown a remarkable adaptability to changing conditions. Obviously the sport shown is vastly different from that enjoyed in Leicestershire when Nimrod and The Druid were its chroniclers and in this country when the Gloucester Fox Hunting Club was in its heyday. But hounds have been bred and trained to avoid and negotiate railroads, automobiles, wire and deer, and to carry a line across roads and fields reeking with gasoline fumes and fertilizer. Horses bred for racing and working cattle now provide sources of hunters to replace those formerly bred for driving and farming. We have provided them with special jumps in the midst of wire and with studs to prevent their slipping. Railroads, vans and trailers save many miles of hacking to and from meets and often make it possible for them to hunt an extra day a week in consequence. Pony Clubs have provided an interest and knowledge of horses and hunting which more than replaces the advantages of growing up among driving and

Hunt Servants Benefit

To the Masters of Foxhounds:

Thanksgiving will soon be here. Will your hunt take a cap from your field for the Hunt Servants Benefit Foundation that day? Or, if your traditions make that impossible, will you set aside another day for the purpose?

William J. Jaeger, Jr., Laurel's Publicity Chief And Racing's Ambassador Of Good Will

Raleigh Burroughs

If William J, Jaeger, Jr., ever buys himself a black homburg and a shiny cowhide briefcase, and marches down Connecticut Avenue, in Washington, passers by will mark him as a young member of the diplomatic corps. He looks the part and, temperamentally, fits the part.

But he is a diplomat and an ambassador in another field. He has to be diplomatic when meeting the not-always-reasonable requests of Turf scribes and he is an ambassador of good will for Laurel Race Course in all parts of the world.

Working in an office, illumed gloriously by the presence of his secretary Miss Pat Marshall, Mr. Jaeger corresponds with racing people everywhere and makes occasional trips into remote places in the interests of Laurel and the now-famous Washington, D. C. International.

Because of his close contact with racing everywhere, it is possible that he is the most widely-known horse-park publicist in the world, though he has been in the profession but five seasons.

Drafted from the sports department of the Baltimore News-Post by Laurel's president, John D. Schapiro, the affable Bill has been a capable wheel horse in the track's program of dignified, but energetic, advertising.

Calm and gregarious by disposition, he is ideally suited to the post of publicizer, but feels, at times, that he may be developing an ulcer or two, the badge of the journeyman racetrack press agent.

Mr. Schapiro, incidentally, has been amazingly fortunate in selecting his key men; but, at the racecourse, you may have noticed, the "fortunate" ones are usually those who do a lot of clear thinking before they bet their money.

This year's International might have been the most migraine-producing of the lot. As a member of the American Selection Board, I can testify to that.

Whenever the situation seemed set, some inconsiderate horse would hurt himself and the operation would be blown wide open.

Of course, the presence of Swaps and Nashua in the race would have made it a success no matter what horses came from abroad, but Nashua's connections made it clear long ago that his schedule had been drawn up and that he would be retired before the date of the International.

Mr. Rex C. Ellsworth, though, seemed to like the idea of having Swaps in the race and he probably would have been had he not cracked a cannon.

Then Mr. C. V. Whitney's Career Boy, went wrong and was withdrawn. Calumet's Bardstown developed a gumboil, and he was out.

When things boiled down, the American contingent was Llangollen's Mister Gus, Mrs. Jan Burke's Dedicate and Mr. Whitney's Fisherman. All boasted adequate credentials. Mister Gus has wins over Summer Tan and Nashua. He beat the latter at even weights and not many horses can make this claim. Dedicate has been a tough one to handle all season and poor racing luck has kept him from even larger earnings. Fisherman won the International of 1953, and, for what he lacks in size, he makes up in courage.

The problems of Messers. Jaeger and Schapiro and Executive Vice-President Joseph T. Cascarella, of Laurel, to bring in their foreign horses have been even more complex.

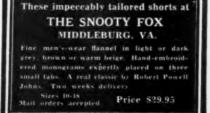

Naturally, they wanted Ribot, the never-defeated Italian horse that, off his performance in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, appeared to be the best horse in the world.

All the calculated persuasion of the Laurel diplomatic corps couldn't bring about that coup; but it appeared that Marcel Boussac's Macip (winner of the Ascot Gold Cup) would come to America. Then, that horse was injured and he was out.

But the Maryland team fought on and brought in a high class field of horses representing France (Master Boing), England (Le Pretendant and By Thunderl), Ireland (Hindu Wand and Vaquero II), Sweden (Chanteclair) and Australia (Prince Cortauld).

Le Pretendant was bred in France, but is the property of Sir Winston Churchill. Hindu Wand was acquired by the Alberta Ranches of Alberta, Canada, so he represented Canada as well as Eire. Prince Cortauld is now the property of Forest G. Smith, Jr., California restauranteur, and was foaled in New Zealand, so he represented Australia, New Zealand and Los Angeles.

His international meandering has carried Mr. Jaeger (pronounced Yager, incidentally) to Europe and has put a few gray lines in his thick, dark hair, though he is not yet 40. Members of the sex, that is competent at appraising such things, tell me that he looks "distinguished".

After he fought his way through the educational channels of Baltimore City College "Yeag" went to work for the News-Post in the sports department. He was with the Hearst daily from 1933 to 1952.

He was a "make-up" man (put the sports pages together) and on his off days went to the races. Though he never developed any greatenthusiasm for gambling, he liked the horses and the color of the sport. When an opening appeared on the Turf beat, he asked for it.

Sports Editor Rodger Pippen thought awhile and then acquiesed, and Mr. Jaeger joined Gaby Haugh and Greg Johnson reporting and selecting.

In 1952, he made the decision that took him from the drudgery of an eighthour day, and stepped onto a treadmill that runs the clock around, 365 days of the year.

Somehow he finds time for his family, Jane, his wife (you should see Janiel) and William J. III and Christy.

William the III takes after his father in that he is a boy and Christy is like her mother in many ways.

Laurel

Johnny Longden's greatest claim to fame is his ability to hold together a front runner, but he proved to easterners that he knows a thing or two about getting the most out of an early laggard when he brought Dr. Eslie Asbury's Lebkuchen in front of Smoke Veil in Laurel's famed Selima Stakes on November 10.

Dead last after going half a mile, Lebkuchen circled her field and registered in a dramatic finish.

Slipperoo and Punctilious raced for the lead in the first four furlongs, with Jet's Charm never far back. Going around the last bend, Jet's Charm displaced Slipperoo, and as they straightened out for home it appeared that the race might be between Punctilious and Jet's Charm. But Smoke Veil and Lebkuchen were moving swiftly. Also, Planchette was beginning to run.

At the 70-yard pole, six fillies were spread across the track.

The outside two were moving relentlessly, though, and, in the final seconds drew out, *Ocked together in a grim duel. With both Hartack, on Smoke Veil, and Longden, calling upon all their skill, the "old man" beat the Boy.

It was Lebkuchen by a nose. The time for the mile and a sixteenth was 1:44 2 5, the fastest Selima.

Planchette got through to take 'aird money by a nose. Jet's Charm was f urth. The winner paid $11,00 for $2.

Lebkuchen was handing up her fourth straight victory and her first in a stakes. She has raced 8 times. Before she started winning, she hadn't finished within shouting distance of the front horse in 4 tries.

She has no in-the-money races except her winning ones.

The $47,000 prize from the Selima Stakes gives her earnings of $54,825.

THE CHRONICLE

She is by Hill Prince, from Brown Biscuit, by Sir Andrew. Dr. Asbury bred her and MacKenzie Miller trains her. "Lebkuchen" is a christmas cookie.

Jamaica

After Bold Ruler's defeat in The Garden State, in which he had enough excuses to defeat Man o' War, race students were anxious to see him again in action to find out what effect his rough experience at Jersey might have had on his disposition to run.

They saw him in the Remsen on November 6 and they still don't know.

He was standing on his hind legs when the gate opened and, when Arcaro got him running, he was blocked off badly and then lost interest in the whole business.

Give your horse a STRONG START in life!

...use VIONATE® to provide

AS YOUR VETERINARIAN KNOWS, the time to build strong bones is while they are being formed—during gestation and later as a growing foal or colt. Once bones have "set", there is little that can be done to correct defects, yet your horse's skeleton is of prime importance to his future as a racer. During growth, DNI (Daily Nutritional Insurance) of vitamins and minerals is of vital importance.

VIONATE ESPECIALLY FORMULATED TO PRO-VIDE DNI. Vionate contains 11 essential vitamins and 9 vital minerals in proper balance. Vionate helps your mare produce a sturdy, well-formed foal — helps her produce abundant supplies of vitamin-and-mineral rich milk — helps your colt develop sound bones and teeth, strong supple muscles and tendons. HORSES OF ALL AGES NEED VIONATE. Many available feeds (or pasturage) fail to provide DNI. A small quantity of Vionate added once each day to the feed economically promotes vigor and stamina, rich red blood, normal growth and reproduction, helps keep horses of all ages in top physical condition all year round.

VIONATE contains: Vitamins A, D₃, B₁, B₂, B₆, B₆, B₇, activity concentrate, Folic acid, Niacin, Pantothenic acid, Vitamin E, Choline; Minerals: Salt, Calcium, Phosphorus, Iodine, Iron, Cobalt, Copper, Magnesium, Manganese.

Montpelier Hunt Race Meeting

Mrs. Vernon G. Cardy's Evian Winner Of 19th Running Of Noel Laing Steeplechase

Chris Wood, Jr.

Favored by perfect racing weather, this year's steeplechasing was brought to a close on Saturday, November 10, with the annual Montpelier Hunt Races. Held on the Montpelier Station, Va., estate of Mrs. Marion duPont Scott, the admission-free program offered excellent racing and attracted some 5000 spectators.

Unfortunately not present to enjoy the day of sport, Mrs. Vernon G. Cardy furnished the winners of the featured brush and hurdle races. Aided and abetted by trainer W. Burling Cocks and jockey James Walker, the Ste. Marguerite, P. Q., Canada, sportslady's *Evian accounted for the 19th running of the Noel Laing Steeplechase Handicap and her *Square Dance 2nd won the Madison Plwte over hurdles.

The Noel Laing

With a gross purse of $3,360 the 2 1/2 mile brush feature attracted 7 starters and sharing the 150 pounds topweight with Montpelier's Mighty Mo and Mrs. Cordelia Scaife May's Billing Bear, Morris H. Dixon's Pine Shot led the field over the first jump. Mrs. M. G. Walsh's Independence was over 2nd, with *Evian and Billing Bear following. Pressed closely by Independence, Pine Shot showed the way until the 7th jump. Coming from 4th in the field, Billing Bear moved to the front over the 7th with *Evian in close attendance. Leading over the 8th and 9th obstacles, Billing Bear tired in the uphill run to the 10th and final brush jump. Ably handled by the English-born rider, *Evian forged to the front, leading Billing Bear over the final jump by a length, with Mighty Mo 2 1/2 lengths in the rear. When straightened away in the stretch, *Evian drew out to triumph by 6 lengths, while Billing Bear held the place position safe, 3 lengths to the good of Mighty Mo. Independence finished 4th as the tiring Pine Shot placed 5th, just a head in front of Curly Joe. Crag trailed throughout to finish 7th and last in the field.

Running over firm turf, the 8-yearold gelding negotiated the 2 1/2 miles and 10 jumps in 4:45 3/5. Obtained by Mrs. V.G. Cardy after he won a turf race for T. W. Durant at the Middleburg spring meeting, *Evian came into his own during the Rolling Rock hunt race meeting, winning the Rector at 2 miles over hurdles and the Laughlintown, 2 mile hurdle feature of the 2 day session. In winning the Noel Laing, the 'chaser bred by the Aga and Aly Khan in Ireland, scored an initial triumph over brush.

The Madison Plate The Montpelier Hunt Races furnish the only course left in America with the English type of switch-laced hurdle fence and this may be the answer to Square Dance 2nd's surprise victory in the Madison Plate at 2 miles over the lesser obstacles. Unsuccessfurl in 3 efforts at Belmont Park and 1 at Middleburg, *Square Dance 2nd felt right at home over the lush turf and rolling course. Ably handled by James Walker, the import followed H. M. Rhett, Jr.'s Port Call over the 1st hurdle with Permian running 3rd. Port Call held this advantage for 6 hurdles, with Permian replacing *Square Dance 2nd in the place position. In the downhill run to the 9th hurdle. Permian showed in front but could only lead by a head over the obstacle as *Square Dance 2nd loomed alongside. Gradually pulling ahead in the uphill run to the 10th and final hurdle, the Englishbred colt fenced beautifully to land a 1/2 length in front of Permian. Closing well William M. Duryea's Breakers Ahead moved into 3rd place as Port Call tired. When straightened away in the run for the wire, *Square Dance 2nd showed his superiority and drew away to win by 4 lengths. Under a drive from James Murphy, Permian just managed to hold the place safe, a head to the good of Breakers Ahead, under Harry Hatcher. Out of contention, Port Call and Miss Mary Rumsey's Tall Mound completed the order of finish. Harry S. Nichols' *Cottage Flame went postward for the race but refused to break with the

In scoring his first victory on American soil, *Square Dance 2nd was timed by Randolph Duffey in 4:22 1/5 for the 2 mile trip over 10 English type hurdles. A winner of his first start over hurdles in January at Birmingham for the Duchess of Norfolk, the 4-year-old colt by Big Game-Foxtrot 4th was purchased by the Canadian sportlady's husband via the Trans-Atlantic phone. Making his debut in the yellow and red maple leaf silks in the important Triumph Hurdle at Hurst Park, *Square Dance 2nd finished 2nd by a head to Solon Morn but was awarded the victory when the latter was disqualified. As an invitee to the $22,000 Midsummer Hurdle Handicap at Monmouth Park, the colt was brought to this country but was unable to start due to reported shelly feet.

LEG CARE IS IMPORTANT

The Montpelier Cup
Fresh from a victory in the Monmouth County Gold Cup at Red Bank, N. J., George T. Weymouth's Eastcor led throughout the 2 mile brush trip to capture the Montpelier Cup, secondary steeplechase attraction. Skillfully ridden by John Knowles, the 4year-old home-bred by Cormac-Eastborough shook off constant bids from Mrs. M. G. Walsh's Mummer's Knot to win by a length. The latter finished 7 lengths in front of the Bellevue Farm's Ares, as Bombez, *Palaja and Sonabo completed the starting field as named. In winning the year's final steeplechase, Eastcor was timed in 4:05.

Hellanicus Wins

Breaking his maiden over hurdles, Montpelier's home-bred Hellanicus accounted for the Meadow Woods, a 1 3/4 mile hurdle event which opened the day of sport. Replacing the front-running Nizam's Pet after the latter led over the 8th and final hurdle by a length, Hellanicus responded to Dale Thiel's urging and drew away to a 1 1/2 length triumph. Tiring after carrying the mail for most of the journey, Nizam's Pet finished 2nd, 6 lengths ahead of the Mill River Stable's Voleur. Wilting after chasing Nizam's Pet for 1 1/2 miles, George T. Weymouth's Know What was 4th in the field of 8 starters. In carrying Dale Thiel to his 2nd winning race over obstacles, the 3-year-

The Virginia Plate

Running over the training track which was rated as "good", Mrs. Dennis Murphy's *Orestes Kid scored a nose decision over James F. McHugh's Sundowner in the Virginia Plate, C. B. Carter's Bandurria, a reported "good thing" from the Charles Town, W. Va., race track broke 1st in the field of 8 and led by 5 lengths at the 1/2 mile marker. However, the impost of 153 pounds soon brought him back to his field and Sundowner showed in front as the stretch run started, Ably ridden by William Murphy *Orestes Kid came from 3rd at the head of the stretch to nose out Sundowner on the wire. Ridden by Evan Jackson, the latter finished 1 1/2 lengths in front of Mrs. H. T. McKnight's *Narcissus 2nd, under Kenneth Field. Registering his 3rd victory of the year and his second in a flat race, the Irish-bred gelding negotiated the 1 mile in 1:45 2/5.

*Prince Du Houlme

The Bellevue Plate, a 1 3/4 mile race for 3 and 4-year-olds over the training track closed a good day of racing and hunt racing's agenda for 1956. Taking over command after E. J. Gould's Dreamer's Moon tired after leading for a mile, Frederick H. Bontecou's *Prince Du Houlme outgamed Montpelier's home-bred Dromond in the stretch to win by 3/4's of a length. The latter had a 4 length advantage over Mrs. H. T. McKnight's Darubini, which finished 3rd in the field of 5 starters. Ridden by James Murphy, the 4-year-old gelding by Prince Chevalier-Folie d'Or traveled the route in 3:07 3/5.

les, Discernment and Missile were speeding along in front, and Logan Batcheller was sitting comfortably on Ambehaving, waiting for the right movement to let

It came after three-quarters of a mile, according to young Mr. Batcheller's judgment, and he had it figured correctly. His mount ranged up on the outside, caught Missile in the stretch and drew out to win by 2 1/2 lengths. Finlandia was third and Cohoes, fourth.

Ambehaving, a New Jersey-bred, was scoring his first victory away from home. His 3 previous successes were in Monmouth's New Jersey Futurity, Atlantic City's Home Bred Handicap and Garden State's New Jersey Breeders' Stakes.

Besides his wins, he has been second once and third once.

Going into the Remsen, the son of *Ambiorix-Dentrifice, by Reaping Reward, had earnings of $51,415. From the Jamaica race he drew $64,975, so his total is $116,390.

The property of the Bohemia Stable, he was bred by Mrs. R. C. duPont, who owns the Bohemia Stable.

Dr. J. M. Lee trains Ambehaving. Mr. C. T. Chenery's Third Brother has been coming along well in recent weeks, but showed a rather weak performance in the Gallant Fox which went to the older Summer Tan. Thus, his backers in the Roamer, for three-year-olds, exclusively, got better than 8 to 1 on a hot horse.

Angel Valenzuela allowed him plenty of time to get his legs under him, but had the colt running at top speed after a mile of the mile and three-sixteenths had been covered. In the last quarter mile he was running over horses, and passed the front-running Reneged in the stretch to win

Purchase Mare From Lord Derby

Mrs. Joseph Walker, Jr. of Rolling Plains Farm, Unionville, Pa., in partnership with the Lazy F Ranch of Mrs. William Farish and Mrs. Edward H. Gerry, have purchased from Lord Derby the broodmare Woodlark by Bois Roussel, out of Aurora, by Hyperion - half sister to Alycida and Acropolis. She has already produced 3 stakes winners in England and is in foal to Abernant. The mare will be brought to this country shortly.

MARYLAND

MacPhail Buys British-Weanling

Larry S. MacPhail of Glenangus Farm, Belair, Maryland, has recently bought from its breeder, Phil Bull, a filly foal by Alycidon out of Queen Electra, the dam of Eudaemon, top British 2-year-old of 1956. Phil Bull is known as the author of a series of annual volumes on British race horses and as one of the most successful bettors in modern times.

TEXAS

Thompson Mares

Tommy Thompson, who popped inhome a few days ago, took time to van his three mares. Eonian, Gallajicki and Paddy's Wish, to his farm here. The three mares have been at Cresson Farm, and all are reported in foal to Valdina Lamar. Thompson plans breeding the three matrons to Lucky Oscar now at John Holliday's farm, Edmond, Okla., in 1957.

Texan Ships North To Avoid Drouth

Oscar L. Foster, veteran Texas horseman, whose spacious Lake View stud, fronting the magnificent Eagle Mountain Lake, is one of the Southwest's show places, gave breeders something to think about when he shipped all of his fine crop of yearlings to Oklahoma for the rest of the year. Foster, one of the most alert breeders in the Nation, decided that the drought had hurt the Southwest too badly for the raising of Thoroughbreds; hence his shipping the youngsters North. Oklahoma, incidentally, has enjoyed better than average rainfall, and stock farms in the Sooner State are in good condition.

Cattlemen in the Southwest for many years have shipped their yearlings to Oklahoma and other Northern centers for fattening, but Foster's decision to send his Thoroughbred horses up is a new departure in this sector.

RHODE ISLAND

Moved To Rhode Island

Mrs. John Payson Adams, who has transferred her breeding stock from California to the family Sandy Point Farm near Newport, Rhode Island, recently entertained several hundred New England owners, breeders, trainers and members of the press at an exhibition of her stock at the farm, which included the stallions, Swift Sword and Biscailuz.

CALIFORNIA

Berseem To Laguna Seca

Berseem, named Best Sprinter of 1955 by Triangle Publications, and recently purchased by Frank C. Bishop has been retired from racing and will make the season of 1957 at the Laguna Seca Ranch near Monterey, California.

Weaning Without Whinnies

Neil McCarthy of California puts mares and foals in adjoining paddocks separated by a tightly woven wire fence at weaning time. He has found that both mother and child do much better than when they are completely separated abruptly as is done on so many stud farms.

FLORIDA

Polo Player To Breed Race Horses

Michael Phipps, for many years one of the top polo players in the country, has joined the ranks of Florida Thoroughbred breeders. A mile training track is nearing completion on the Phipps ranch, northwest of Palm Beach, while stables and administration buildings are also under construction. He is the son of John S. Phipps, who maintains a breeding farm at Middleburg, Virginia, and whose horses are trained by Max Hirsch. Mr. Phipps, Sr. and other members will be invited to use the track as a training center during the winter months.

Fontaine Buys Three

Hugh Fontaine, currently prominent as the trainer of Needles, purchased three yearlings for his own account at the recent Garden State Yearling Sales.

Level Lea To Stand In Virginia

Level Lea, by Bull Lea - Level Best, by Equipoise, the property of John S. Phipps will make the 1957 stud season at Dr. Fritz Howard's Meadowville Farm near Warrenton, Virginia. Level Lea was ranked second only to Native Dancer among the 3-year-olds of 1953 on the Blood-Horse Handicap. He is out of the leading 2-year-old filly of her year, who comes from the great stakes and sire family of Speed Boat and Friar's Carse. His first foals are now weanlings.

Van Clief Buys Headley Weanlings

Danny Van Clief of the Nydrie Stud, Esmont, Virginia, has recently purchased from Duval A, Headley of Lexington, Ky, the latter's entire group of weanlings except for a filly by Count Fleet out of Gaga, Continued on Page 8 dam of Tom Fool which is being retained by Mr. Headley for his broodmare band. The weanlings include colts by Tom Fool out of the stakes winner Crownlet; a colt by Ambiorix out of the stakes winner Aunt Jinny; and a chestnut colt by Olympia out of Picture, the dam of the stakes winner Royal Fan. There is also a bay filly by Menow out of the stakes producer Teddy's Own. It is planned to sell the weanlings in the Nydrie consignment at the Saratoga Sales next August.

Midas To Stand At North Hill

An addition to the Virginia Stallion ranks is the successful and proven sire Midas, who was recently shipped from England to Milton Ritzenberg's North Hill Farm near Berryville, Virginia. Midas, who raced for Lord Rosebery, was never out of the money in all his starts, won the Newmarket and other stakes and was second to Dante in the Epsom Derby. He is by Hyperion out of Coin of the Realm (by Phalaris) a stakes winner and stakes producer, the second dam being Plack, which won the 1000 Guineas and the Oaks, and was also a producer of stakes winners. Since he entered the stud in 1947, Midas has sired the winners of nearly 100 races including many stakes winners and horses which have been listed on the Free Handicap.

Hancock Family Monopoly

The fall stakes at Keeneland turned into pretty much of a family affair. Not only were all three won by the get of stallions standing at A. B. Hancock's Claiborne Farm, Paris; but two of the victors belong to the Claiborne racing stable and the other to Charlton Clay, Mr. Hancock's brother-in-law and owner of Marchmont Farm adjoining Claiborne.

Mr. Clay's Leallah, by *Nasrullah, led every step to take the $15,000-added Alcibiades Stakes on the opening Saturday of the meeting.

Six days later Claiborne's three-yearold Doubledogdare, by Double Jay, copped the first running of the $50,000-added Spinster Stakes.

The next day Claiborne came right back to wind up the meet with the victory of Round Table, by *Princequillo, in the $25,000-added Breeders' Futurity. F.T.P.

Helioscope to Circle M

Olin Gentry, who recently moved from the management of Dan and Ada Rice's

Danada Farm to a similar post at John W. rac Galbreath's Darby Dan Farm, has taken tim William G. Helis, Jr.'s stallion Helioscope along with him. Acutally Ace Ad-scope along with him. Acutally Ace Admiral's full brother will stand at Mrs. Edward S. Moore's Circle M Farm, now leased to Darby Dan. All three farms lie along the Old Frankfort Pike east of Lexington.

Helioscope, who stood his first stud season this spring, cost the late Dr. John Lee, bidding for Mr. Helis, $17,000 at the 1952 Keeneland Fall Sales as a yearling. In three active seasons the colt won the Olympic, Benjamin Franklin, Trenton, Southern Maryland, Valley Forge, Massachusetts, Suburban, Salvator Mile and Monmouth Handicaps, Pimlico Special, a division of the Select Handicap, five other races and $418,275. Unplaced only five times in 25 starts, he set new track records for seven furlongs (1,22 3/5 at Bowie), a mile (1.36 4/5 at Monmouth Park), a mile and 70 yards (1.40 3/5 at Garden State Park), 1 1/8 miles (1.47 3/5 at Atlantic City) and 1 1/4 miles (2.01 at Suffolk Downs).

Selected Yearlings

Although the average price of yearlings at the Keeneland Fall Sales was 10% higher than last year, only nine out of the 972 yearlings catalogued at both this and the summer sales brought more than the $9, 891 average of the "Sale of Selected Yearlings", which is the sub-title of the sum-

Nail To Rest After Operation

Mrs. Anson A. Bigelow's Nail, richest two-year-old of 1955, is expected shortly at Cy F. White's Plum Lane Farm, Lexington, to rest and recover from a recent sinus operation. The gray son of *Nirgal out of the Modesty Stakes winner No Strings took the Belmont and Pimlico Futurities, and Remsen Stakes last season; but was unable to score this year.

Third Brother's Half Brothers

Christopher T. Chenery, owner of The Meadow, Doswell, Va., has a yearling half brother, by *Nasrullah, and a suckling half brother, by *Turn-to, to Third Brother, the *Princequillo three-year-old who recently beat his seniors by five lengths in the $25,000 added Long Island Handicap at 1 5/8 miles through the mud under top weight by the age scale. The dam, the blind Hildene, was bred to Tom Fool last spring. For Mr. Chenery, who boards much of his breeding stock at A. B. Hancock's Claiborne Farm, Paris, Ky., she has produced three other stakes victors: Third Brother's full brothers Hill Prince and Prince Hill, and the Sun Beau gelding Mangohick. F. T. P.

Blessbull's Half Sister

Arch L. Graham, owner of Montrose Farm, Lexington, has a weanling half sister, by *Daumier, to Blessbull, the Bless Me gelding who recently set a new 1 1/16-mile record of 1.42 flat in the $25,000-added Queens County Handicap at Jamaica. The dam, Edabull, is now in foal to Oil Capitol.

Mr. Graham, who paid Paragon Stable $800 for Edabull at the 1953 Keeneland Fall Sales, has already sold two of her colts for a total of $31,500 as yearlings at the Saratoga Sales.

Chronicle Cover

Frank D. "Dooley" Adams was born in Port Chester, N. Y. and started his career as a steeplechase rider at the age of 14. He broke his "maiden" when he won a brush race at Agua Caliente in Mexico, but he was not licensed in this country until his sixteenth birthday, in 1945.

This year he finished second to A. P. Smithwick after having held the "leading rider over jumps" crown for seven straight years. He has scored over 300 victories over jumps during his career, which is quite an accomplishment. Although a comparison to a leading jockey on the flat is hard to make, it would be safe to say that scoring 300 steeplechase victories in this country is comparable to hitting the 4,000 victory column for a flat rider. 100 mounts or better during one year are hard to come by for a steeplechase rider.

Although "Dooley" Adams is still a young man he has decided to retire from race riding and plans to enter the trainers ranks. If he gives his new role the same efforts he gave to riding 'chasers, he can't miss. Steeplechasing enthusiasts in America and those who witnessed "Dooley" Adams' ride of Refugio in the 1947 English Grand National, in which he finished 8th, all wish him the best of luck in his new field.

*Khaled, Sire Of Record Breakers

In addition to Swaps' 7 track or world records, 4 other sons of *Khaled have equaled or set new time standards this year: New Trend at 1 1/16 miles, Khaling Again at 7 furlongs, Karim at 6 1/2 furlongs and 6 furlongs, and Busterbegood at 5 1/2 furlongs. Swaps set new world records at 1 mile and 70 yards, 1 mile, 1 1/16 miles, and 1 5/8 miles. He equaled the world record for 1 1/8 miles and set track records at one mile and at 1 1/4 miles. Total records set this year by the sons of *Khaled: 12.

FINISH OF THE GARDENIA - Magic Forest, C. V. Whitney's 2-year-old filly (on the outside) won the rich Gardenia through the disqualification of ROMANITA (#2). Romanita was placed third for interference and Light 'n Lovely was awarded second money after finishing in 3rd place. The winner's share of the $136,275 purse was $93,550. (Turfotos)

MARYLAND FALL SALES

The 17th annual Maryland Fall Sales, conducted by the Fasig-Tipton Co., held its first session at the Laurel Paddock Monday morning Nov. 5. Thirty-four head of horses in training brought a total of $17,700 for an average of $520. The top price was $1,700, paid by W. K. Short, Jr. for Cupid Girl a 3-year-old bay filly by *Nirgal out of the stakes winning mare Earshot, by Petrose, consigned by Mrs. Milton Erlanger. Mrs. R. H. Patch paid $1,600 for the 4-year-old imported gray gelding High Night, by His Highness-Nightdress, by Night of the Garter, consigned by Mrs. Henry Obre.

The second session of the sales was held at Timonium and the auctioneer hammered down 74 head for $71,950 for an average of $972. The high for the evening was the $4,400;bid by Humphrey Finney, agent, for the 9-year-old mare My Nell, by Sun Egret-Belle Gene, by Economic, consigned by Frederick Vollmer. My Nell was a winner of 8 races and $53,015, including the Hazel Park Endurance Championship, and the Scarlet Carnation Handicap. She was believed to be infoal to Tuscany.

WHITNEY JUMPERS IN ENGLAND

Although John Hay Whitney does not race steeplechasers in this country he has for a number of years had a few horses running over jumps in England in charge of trainer Gerald Balding. Two of the most promising now in training are the 4-year-old Square Shooter and the 6-year-old The Quiet Man. Both have won over hurdles, but only Square Shooter has so far run over brush. Last spring, in a field of ten starters for the National Hunt Juvenile 'Chase at Cheltenham, he finished second by two lengths, considered a promising performance.

GOOD WINNER FOR *ARCTIC PRINCE

When the bay colt by *Arctic Prince (now standing at Leslie Combs Spendthrift Farm, Lexington, Ky.) out of the Portlaw mare Battle Law was submitted at last year's Newmarket Sales, it was not to be wondered at that he was in much demand, for he was a half-brother to three really useful winners. Eventually at $15,000 he was knocked down to the bid of Lord Porchester.

Making his third appearance on the racecourse in the valuable Gainsborough Stakes worth $6,000 to the winner, the son of *Arctic Prince, now called Mannerheim, scored in a thrilling finish by a short-head from the Palestine colt Jehu, after which he had to survive successfully an objection.

This Hurst Park race was over a mile, so it looks as if Mannerheim may well become a factor in next season's top races over a distance of ground. P.T-C.

ROEBLING SOPHOMORE SCORES

Jockey Club member Joe Roebling had a winner in England lately when his Abernant three-year-old filly Abyssinia beat eleven opponents in the Hednesford Handicap at Wolverhampton.

A grey filly from the Big Game mare Serengeti, she gained the advantage inside the last furlong to win by half a length, completing the five furlongs in 62 4/5 seconds.

P. T-C.

CLARK FILLY SCORES

Made an odds-on chance to beat her fifteen opponents in the 13/8 miles Oakengates Plate at Wolverhampton, Robert S. Clark's nice Blue Peter filly Blue Robe had little difficulty to score by two lengths.

Bred by her owner, she is out of *Mabmoud's daughter Mary Phyllis, who also bred this year's winning three-year-old Gentle Touch. P. T-C.

ENGLISH HORSES TO RACE

IN CALIFORNIA

English owner Jack Gerber has announced that he will send his good router By Thunder! and the five-year-old Epaulette across the Atlantic to race in California this winter.

A five-year-old by Nearco out of Vertencia, By Thunderl has won six races including the Winston Churchill Stakes and the Yorkshire Cup. A thoroughly consistent and genuine horse, he likes to stride out in front, and the softer the going the better.

Epaulette is by leading sire Court Martial out of the Dastur mare Golden Sari. Best at five or six furlongs, he was a brilliant juvenile, but nearly dies at three. Now back at his best, he has scored four times this season, his victories including the Portland Handicap and the Select Stakes.

FRENCH STEWARD FOR LAUREL

John D. Schapiro, president of Laurel, has invited the Duc de Noailles, one of the stewards at the recent running of the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in Paris, to officiate during the running of the Washington, D. C. International on November 12th.

PRINCE KHALED'S RECORD

RECOGNIZED

Although the protest of General W. W. Kratz, owner of Prince Khaled, to the California Horse Racing Board, questioning the disqualification of the colt by the stewards in the Del Mar Futurity on September 8th was denied, Eddie Read, assistant to Del Mar president Donald Smith, recently announced that the track is recognizing Prince Khaled's time for the six furlongs as equalling the track record of 1.08 4/5. This is supposedly the fastest time for the distance ever run by a 2-year-old around a turn. This record has also been recognized by "The Morning Telegraph".

SWAPS NOMINATED

Rex Ellsworth and John Galbreath have accepted an invitation to race Swaps in the $100,000, Washington, D. C. International at Laurel Park on November 12th.

ARCARO'S MEMORIES

Eddie Arcaro must have mixed memories of his latest visit to Keeneland. A day after the track gave him a gold julep cup at the retirement of Nashua, the stewards set the talented jockey down for 10 days because of rough riding on Nimble Doll in the Spinster Stakes. The suspension kept him from piloting the favored Bold Ruler in the richest race in the world, the Garden State Stakes.

TATTERSALLS BARN BURNS

The main sales barn at the Tattersalls Corp., Lexington, Ky., was destroyed by a spectacular hay-fed fire last week. No horses were in the 43-year-old structure, the fourth on the site to have burned since 1901. Fire officials estimated the loss at $70,000. Most of the office records were saved, but were so jumbled that it was impossible for company officials to ascertain immediately the extent of insurance coverage.

Even before the embers had cooled, Bill Evans, Manager of the Breeders Sales Co., Inc., offered its facilities at Keeneland to Tattersalls, which sells Saddle Horses, Standardbreds and occasionally Thoroughbreds. Tattersalls officials indicated that the offer would probably be accepted for the two already scheduled fall auctions.

For the present, the sales company has set up temporary offices at the nearby trotting track through the co-operation of the Lexington Trots Breeders Association.

It has been established that the fire was set by two young boys, six and eight years old, by lighting straw in the loft of the building.

OFF-TRACK TOTE BETTING

Columnist Oscar Otis cites Melbourne turf writer Jim Shannon's approval of off-track tote betting which has been introduced successfully in New Zealand, and which it is expected will shortly be legalized in Australia. Mr. Shannon observes that although it has cut attendance to some extent, it has brought a great increase in revenue to the tracks which have been able to improve purses and plants to an extent which would otherwise have been impossible.

PURSE-SPLIT UNIFORMITY

Columnist Nelson Dunstan advocates a more uniform and equitable split of purses at American race tracks. In New York, the winner now receives 65% of the purse; in California, 55% and at most other tracks, 60% which according to Racing Secretary Jimmy Kilroe, is about the correct figure. Dunstan also cites with approval the principle adopted in The Garden State, world's richest race, in which the starting and nomination fees are divided between the first four horses instead of all going to the winner which is the system in force at the New York and other tracks.

TOP TWO-YEAR-OLD

Four colts are currently competing for the title of Best Two-Year-Old of 1956 -Bold Ruler, winner of the Belmont Futurity; Barbizon, winner of The Garden State; Greek Game, winner of the most money, and King Hairan, winner of the most stakes. The running of the Pimlico Futurity may mark the winner. The real champion may not, in fact, appear until the running of the Flamingo at Hialeah, Florida, on March 2nd.

LADIES' HANDICAPPERS

Four of the top handicappers in training Bardstown, Mister Gus, Summer Tan and Dedicate, all of which are expected to meet in the Pimlico Special on November 22nd, are owned by ladies - Mrs. Gene Markey of Calumet Farm, Lexington, Kentucky; Mrs. M. E. Lunn of Llangollen Farm, Upperville, Virginia; Mrs. John W. Galbreath of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Jan Burke of Miami Beach, Florida.

SHOEMAKER TOPS TWO MILLION

When Willie Shoemaker booted Ada L. Rice's Beautillion across the finish line in the 6th race at Garden State Park on October 18th, he became the first rider in history whose mounts had earned over $2,000,000 in a single season.

We offer for sale a very brilliant conformation, registered Thoroughbred chestnut gelding, 17 hands, top middleweight, six-year-old, by Sirte. Has never been shown. He is one of the best young jumpers we have seen in years. In our mind he compares with the great Lillian S. and other famous horses. He will make an excellent hunter or show horse and has speed enough to make a top steeplechase or timber horse. He has won on the flat, three-quarters in 1:11. He is sound.

Several high class three-year-old Thoroughbreds suitable for hunters.

Two broadmares both in foal to a Heliopolis stallion. His first crop are now all two-year-olds and winners.

A three-year-old Thoroughbred broodmare by Hierocoles which is a half-brother to the leading French sire Djebel. Her dam, Drift Song is by Heliopolis out of a *Blenheim II mare. She was a very fast two-year-old, starting six times and finishing first twice, second once, and third twice.

HUNTING WITH THE FELL HOUNDS OF THE ULLSWATER FOXHOUNDS R. D. Humber

The first view of Longsleddale, a deep cutting at the foot of the Shap road five miles north of Kendal, always delights my eye, and one bright winter's morning I paused to sayour the scene.

I could not tarry long. Four miles up the winding dales land loe Wear and the Ullswater Foxhounds of which Mr. Alan Peck is Master, would soon be stirring the fell foxes for crag couch and coppice shelter. There was little ceremony at the meet at nine o'clock at Stockdale Farm, an isolated farmstead at the foot of the eastern fells. Joe Wear alone wore hunting scarlet and black cap, His cherry-red, smiling face nodded a greeting to the 20odd dalesfolk followers, all on foot like himself. He would his horn and strode away, a thick-set virile figure thrusting up the rising fell, his hard-driving pack of predominantly white-coated hounds ranging ahead up Great Howe intakes.

The hounds streamed away to the head of the dale far beyond the last white house of Sadgill Farm, tucked under the brow of Withered Howe. As we approached the jaws of Longsleddale, where the mountain track soars over Gatescarth Pass to Haweswater and the rugged hump of Buckbarrow nods across the narrowed dale to Goatscar, Joe Wear struck up the eastern breast of the fells with three couple of hounds while George Black, the whipperin, took the main pack up the pass road and climbed round the screes of Buckbarrow.

A big fox sidled across the face of the crag, stepping leisurely where no hound could find a foothold. At last he made a false move. He ventured too far, and several hounds sidled down the fissured cragface and cut off his retreat. Away went their quarry like a red wraith sidling and slipping away for the open fellside. It sped swiftly when it struck the trod slicing up the dark chimney, breasting the shoulder of Buckbarrow, with the hounds chiming in his wake.

The fox struck the ridge of the fells half a mile ahead of the pack, but Joe had anticipated this move. His six hounds joined the hunt from Sleddale Fell, a baffled fox turned abruptly and set his mask for the dale bottom where the gleaming foam-splashed beck wriggled through the dale. The strongly-running fox gained the mountain track well ahead of hounds: a hollering wail raised by the hunt followers on the road saluted him.

The united pack streamed into the dale, belling the echoes from crag to crag in the deep amphitheatre of the mountains. The fox lifted his mask for the dark hump of Goatscar; a scythe-winged peregrine lifted from its look-out spur on lofty Goatscar and flickered over the dale. The great-hearted Ullswater hounds fanned over the western fells running hard on the line, just raising a chirp now and then for they needed all their wind to breast the steep fell. Ahard-pressed fox turned again and slipped down-dale, making purposefully for his home borran among the rock-strewn litter below Buckbarrow . Followers among the borran rocks turned the homing fox. It swerved away and was lost to view among the ledges and crevices of Buckbarrow.

The fox, lighter and more agile than a hound, eluded the chiming pack on the ling-grown ledges of the crag. One staunch white hound, Bounty, hunted him diligently. Bounty stuck to his brush and marked the fox from ginnel to ledge until, climbing like a marten, it eluded the vigilant hound on a precipice sheer beneath the frowning crest of the turreted crag.

George Black and Jimmy Kitching, the hawk-eyed shepherd of Swinklebank, rattled stones down the crag, and Bounty climbed up to them. The fox traversed the crag and sought refuge under the overhanging buttress, clinging like a limpet to a perilous couch within 40 feet of the dauntless hound and the two men peering into the abyss.

Half an hour passed and the fox never stirred, lying as flat as a pancake. Bounty, risking her neck, cat-walked down the crag, stalking closer. The fox rose, snarling defiance, and sidled round a hump of rock. Two hounds were waiting there. Back he came snaking over the rocks, brush waving as a rudder.

A game customer, this old fell fox. He raised his head and weighed up the messengers of death, then out he came like a gallant adventurer, brush weaving high, sheer down the crag, jumping, and slithering. He dodged Bounty, gained the rubble of the screes and flicked away downdale heading straight for the impregnable borran at the base of Buckbarrow with half the hounds of the Ullswater pack chiming high behind him.

Duster, a dark-saddled, young hound, spurted ahead of the racing pack and rolled a gallant fox over 10 yards from the borran-mouth - the fox's haven. He was a fine old 18 lb. warrior.

MEADOW BROOK HOUNDS

Glenhead, Long Island, New York. Established 1877. Recognized 1894. Operated by Meadow Brook Club, Westbury, Long Island about 9 miles from kennels.

Meadow Brook Hounds met at Mrs. Shotter's at 7 A. M. on September 19th, for the first day of cub hunting. It was a beautiful , clear, cool day, and hounds, horses and field were in excellent spirits. An early-bird fox cooperated by giving us a nice run through Senff's.

Saturday, the 22nd was another lovely day. The meet was at Mr. Dobb's, and as we drew toward Clark's Field, hounds started tongueing almost immediately and worked slowly through Broad Hollow and back toward the new Meadow Brook golf course. Then near Mr. Clark's farm cottages, they really found the line and ran at full speed through Goodyear's, Whitney's and Guest's, Hounds killed soon after that and Torrance Watkins and Lee Bradley, two of the "young entry", were blooded and received pads, October 6th, at Brewster's was another very successful day. We drew Murnane's and had a short run, jumping all the small fences, giving the "young entry" a thrill. After crossing Muttontown Road there followed the most disorganized and encouraging hour; disorganized because hounds ran in four different directions after four cubs, and encouraging because in this section we are happy to have four cubs to run after. Charlie Plumb and the whippersin finally gathered up hounds and we crossed back into Senff's where about threequarters of the field left and went home. We who remained were rewarded by a fast, thrilling run which involved jumping the new in-and-out sheep hurdles and some trappy fences in Kelly's.

After a couple of days when scent was not too good, hounds met at Mr. Winthrop's on Friday, October 12th, and found almost at once, running toward the race track, They then made a hairpin turn (losing most of the field) and ran straight and fast up the hill, over the railroad tie jump and down the steep hill to Stoddard's. The few who were with hounds had a beautiful view of the pack, tightly bunched, running the newly seeded fields with the early morning sun glinting on their shining coats. Into Goodyear's they went and across the road to Whitney's where, after a fast thirty minute run and a last minute view of the fox, their pilot wen to earth. Mr. Hickox, Mr. and Mrs. Bristol, Mrs. Long and Mr. Pratt, were the only ones with Charlie Plumb, Huntsman, and declared it the fastest and best run so far this season. Two of the puppies "Fireman" and "Fiddler" were among the lead hounds.

The weather was perfect on Saturday, the 20th of October when the meet was at Field's and two foxes were viewed and run. Also one curious cub came near to look us over, but decided to return quietly to the woods while the hounds were busy with the older members of the family. The day was splendid experience for the eight puppies that were out. E. B. C.

SMITHTOWN HUNT

Wide Water Farm, Stony Brook, L. I., N. Y Established 1900. Recognized 1907

Our season, under the leadership of the Hunt's new joint masters, Edward J. Gould and Dr. Arthur Fredericks, got off to an early start. The junior members began working with the young entry in August , walking them on leads and in couplings, and teaching them to respond to the horn and to handle on the bench. On the 6th of October, the program was climaxed with an intra-kennel Hound Show at Wide Water, with Mr. H. W. Meistrell judging. Mrs. Ward Melville had the pleasure of awarding the Best in Show trophy to Bartender, '54, one of the Hunt's home-breds. Susan Schier, fortunate enough to draw him by lot, showed him throughout. Young Jeff Howell, who shows his own golden retrievers, won the handling class. Gustave Mollet, out huntsman, gave a demonstration on the horn, teaching the juniors the various calls, and wound up the Show with a drag hunt around the farm. It was beautiful to watch, and the juniors and spectators enjoyed it as much as the hounds.

Weather has favored our cubbing season, and the work the juniors have done with the young entry is paying off - the pack is working better than ever before. Although we've been through deer country, we've so far had no riot.

A touch of irony met us one morning in the person of a game keeper who told us proudly that he had had killed nine foxes the previous week. We shall be a while recovering from that one.

Our juniors are organizing their own committee to plan further work with the hounds next spring; to set up groups to assist with preparations for the Hunting Pace event which will be held in December; to take over the organization of the Junior Hunts; and to take part in other activities

METAMORA HUNT

Metamora, Lapeer County, Michigan, Established 1928, Recognized 1930

Hunter Pace Event

On October 28, Metamora Hunt at Metamora, Michigan held a Hunter Pace Event. The course was laid over the rolling pastures of Ben Colman's Colstream Farm. In fact, some curious dairy cows had to be lured to one side before it could be started.

The distance was slightly over a mile with twelve fences to be handled. Footing was excellent and each jump was different in approach or type. Chicken coops, stone walls and post and rail were included.

It was announced ahead of time that there would be a penalty on any entry above or below the committee set time of three minutes for the distance. There could also be charged penalties for bad jumping. Professionals were invited to ride on the same basis, the winner of the professional group to receive a cash prize and a trophy to go to the winning amateur.

With eight entries the event made a creditable "quiet" sort of morning with horses - without all the fuss and turmoil of a horse show. Most of all, it showed some good foxhunters the value of "pace" - so important in saving horses on a long run behind hounds. The spectator turnout was excellent and the committee and riders felt it was a worthwhile change in entertainment.

Colleen by Koodoo, ridden and owned by Ben Colman, took the trophy, finishing just one second off the three-minute time. This experienced hunting mare loses no effort over fences and seems to rate to most any speed.

Al Barron won the professional prize with Tom Wilson's Rough Tour, the promising young hunting stallion by Tourist II His time was one-half second off the announced time.

Following these two entries, faults went higher. Some missed by 35 to 40 seconds, which is quite a difference in a galloping horse.

STRANGELY BRED IRISH ENTRY

It is unlikely that any horse in the Horse Trials at Harewood, Yorkshire, England had a more unusual ancestry than the entry from Ireland. This roan gelding Korbous, is by an Arab-Barb North African sire out of a Connemara Pony mare. Although Harewood ranks with Badminton and Windsor as the stiffest Olympic-type Three-Day-Event course in Great Britain, this unusual little horse is able to show a clean pair of heels to any fence the designers evolve, as he is a brilliant and fearless jumper.

The pedigree of Korbous bridges a two-century gap in the checquered history of the Connemara Pony, as Barbary horses were introduced to Connemara about 1760, when considerable commerce took place between the west of Ireland and the Barbary coasts.

POLO

Dogwood Hunt And Polo Club

On September 28 and 29 the Dogwood Hunt and Polo Club of Chattanooga, Ten nessee, played a series of two match games with the Memphis Polo Association of Memphis, Tennessee, on the Dogwood Club's home field at Bendabout, the farm of S. K. Johnston in McDonald, Tennessee.

On Saturday, September 28, Memphis got off to a fast start in the first period on a goal by Howard, but Chattanooga retaliated shortly with a goal by West on a long pass from Dalton. The second period saw both teams going scoreless with fine defensive play on the part of both Herman and Dalton. In the third period Chattanooga went ahead quickly on a spectacular under the neck shot by Wells; however, in with a goal by Dalton from about forty yards out. Memphis came back strongly to try to score but McGauley made it two to nothing for Chattanoogs, with a goal in the last few seconds.

In the second period Easterly alternated with West putting Chattanooga ahead three to nothing. In the third period Chattanooga added another score on a beautiful back hand by Dalton, making the score four to nothing at the half. Memphis' only score came in the fifth chukker when Winston Cheairs, alternating at No. 1, took the ball in front of his own goal and carried down the side board the entire length of the field to score an a beautiful under the neck shot. This game ended in Chattanooga's favor four to one, and marked Chattanooga's first victory over the Memphis Club.

the last few seconds Herman took the ball away from Chattanooga's No. 1 on a defensive play and took it the entire length of the field to score, leaving the score tied two and two at the end of the half.

In the fourth period Memphis scored a few seconds after the throw in on a long pass from Howard to Long. Two minutes later they scored again on another long shot by Herman. The fifth period saw an almost duplicate of the fourth in scoring as Herman and Long again connected for Memphis. However, Chattanooga also put another marker on the board on another nice shot by their No. 1, Wells. On the final period Cook scored for Memphis and Basterly poked one through for Chattanooga. The game ended with Memphis winning seven to four.

Blind Brook Noses Out Farmington

Bill Briordy

Bill Crawford's fourth goal, registered in the last two minutes, broke a deadlock to enable the Blind Brook four to gain a 9-8 victory over the Farmington (Conn.) mallet-swingers at the Blind Brook Polo Club, Purchase, N. Y., onkSunday afternoon, October 7.

With Zenas Colt getting a goal in the opening minute, the Blind Brook poloists collected five of their goals in the first chukker. Blind Brook led by 7-4 at half-time.

Crawford, showing the way on the attack, rode with Adie von Gontard, Colt and Tom Glynn. Frank Fox, Frank Butterworth, Jr., Al Marenholz and Bill Westerlund formed the Farmington side.

Von Gontard made three of the winners' goals, while Colt stroked two. Butterworth and Marenholz each hit three markers for Farmington, with Westerlund making two.

Upper Midwest 3-Day Event

This event, the first of its type ever held in this area was staged primarily to give the many local contributors to the U. S. Equestrian Team some inkling of what a Three-day event was all about. No admission was charged but a collection was taken up for the benefit of the U. S. E. T.

The program was divided into a twophase event forchildren or for others whose horses might not be fit for the cross country phase. The first phase, in which both groups entered, was called an Obedience Test (the word dressage was not used). The second phase was a typical F. E. L type course consisting of both spread and vertical jumps, but the height was limited to 3'3".

On Saturday, September 8, the first and second phases were held in the morning with the cross country event over about three miles of trails with approximately twenty jumps, none exceeding 3'6". It was emphasized that all of the jumps would be fair jumps that any hunter could negotiate without difficulty.

On Sunday afternoon the third phase of stadium jumping (called - jumping in the ring) was held, with jumps set at 3' 6". Following the stadium jumping four additional events were added to bring out the open jumpers, open to all, similar to the stadium jumping course; the Scurry class, the Barrien Springen class, and a high jump consisting of one jump in the ring with each horse given three tries. This class was called a tie after three horses had cleared the jump at 5' 11".

The two and three-phase event was judged under the same scoring as is used at the Olympic Games; the added events under F. E. L rules.

The primary purpose of this whole event was to get people to bring their horses and see for themselves that their own hunters were able to negotiate without difficulty a different type of jump than they had been accustomed to. The comments were most gratifying, particularly among the open jumping people, who came to realize the many advantages of F. E. I. scoring, particularly the removal of the element of judgment on the part of the judge as to whether it was a front knock-down, a hind knock-down, a tick as a result of a stone or a clod of dirt.

The Ellen R. Schley Perpetual Challenge Trophy, last class of the day and the one which decided the championship for Tipples, was an innovation this year and a great success not only from the spectator angle but also as a real test for hunters, the idea being that a horse may have a faultless performance galloping and jumping alone over a show course but may still be a poor hunter if he doesn't behave himself and respond quickly in the company of other horses, as he must do in the hunting field. Entries in the class, restricted to winners of a first or second in some previous class during the day, came out on the course together and behind Buster Chadwell, huntsman of the Essex Fox Hounds, for a simulated fox hunt, only Chadwell and the judges knowing where or how they were to go. Blowing "Gone-away" on his horn, the huntsman galloped off over several fences after an imaginary pack of hounds pursuing an imaginary fox. He then pulled up suddenly, as if the "fox" had circled, and galloped back. This performance was repeated three or four times with several checks and sharp turns, all calculated to show whether or not the followers were mounted on well-mannered, responsive and com-Peggy Wemple

Chagrin Valley Hunt

A combination of outstandingly good weather and an excellent new course made the Chagrin Valley Hunt hunter trials one of the most successful in recent years. The Foxhunters Class, which is run very much like the event for the Champion Hunter of Virginia, was won by Chorus Girl owned by Robert H. Bishop, III. This pair also won the middle and heavyweight class. Gilbert W. Humphrey's Sky put in one of the outstanding rounds of the day to win the Masters Trophy for the second year. Alfred Hunt's Pennsylvania horses showed a liking for "the Valley" as they accounted for the first two places in the lightweight class. Mr. Hunt then teamed his horses up with William Hanley's Tillery's Spree to win hunt teams.

Fairfield County

The Hunter Trials held October 14, on the property of Mrs. Barbara B. Taylor, in Southport, were fortunate again this year in having a perfect day, large attendance and well filled classes of good quality horses.

The lengthening of the course by making a swing around the lower field below the second fence, gave an opportunity to show both handiness and galloping ability. The addition of two fences, a chicken coop, to replace the old, invisible water jump and a white gate in the lower field, between the first and second stone walls, added to the interest of both riders and spectators. The course, which is now entirely visible to those standing on top of the hill, gives the feel of nice rolling country and has the usual variety of fences found in this section. The going this year was excellent and made for many brilliant rounds.

Our good neighbor, Daniel McKeon, M. F. H. of Goldens Bridge, came over with three yound riders to account for many ribbons and finally the championship. The championship is not awarded on points, but by the winners of first and second ribbons following a leader over an impromptu course at a hunting pace. This gives the judges an opportunity to observe manners and way of going in a group and select what they consider the most agreeable mounts to hounds. This test, while extremely practical and fair, is I fear, much more welcome to spectators than riders, particularly at the end of a long day. Mr. Jack Melville, being both competent and thorough, rode three horses over a few fences, before pinning Mr. McKeon's brown gelding, Arrigideen, champion and Mrs. DeSibour's consistent, good looking Thoroughbred, Sir Sortie, as reserve.

Children's 5th Annual

One can feel assured that there will be horsemen and horse shows in the future if one attended this marvelous show put on for children and by children 14 years old and under. One hundred and seventy entries were in the show of which seventy were from Red Fox Stables, Newtown, Ohio, operated by Childress Rodgers, Only three adults took an active part. The judge, Edgar Mack-announcer and C. Samways-ringmaster. The co-chairmen (only 14 years old) were Sally Davis and Ann Minor, Each class was well filled - the most being in the beginner horsemanship class for ages 10-12. There were twenty and the class had to be divided. It is interesting to note that so many contestants who took part in the advanced horsemanship and advanced jumping classes were those who had some ring experience in various shows this past summer. It is also interesting to note that these youngsters through their hard work realized $1,000 to give to the Polio Relief Fund.

Wicomico 4-H Junior

Many children won their first ribbons at the Wicomico 4-H Hoofprints Junior Horse Show which was designed to give the entries a chance at winning. A feature of the show was a fitting and showing class, which was taken by Lynn Dyott of Easton, Md. This is the second year that this show has been held and many horsemen have said it has already become well known for the sportsmanship displayed. Owners who have horses of championship caliber do not enter and the same is true for the riders who are consistent winners, and this spurs the beginners on to ribbons.

GUNSTON'SCHOOL

The Gunston School's Annual Fall Horse Show was held in the ring on the school grounds near Centreville, Md., on Saturday, October 27, under the direction of Col. Boris W. Guenichta, the school's riding master. Judges for the show were Mrs. George Barner of Easton, Md. and Mrs. Ralph McNeal of Trappe, Md. Championship of the show and the Kent and Queen Anne's Children's Aid Society Perpetual Trophy were won by Mary Lee Sansbury, riding her mare, Chilly Weather. Miss Sansbury is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Lee Sansbury of Baltimore, Md. and London, England. Reserve Champion of the show was Jennifer Ewoldt, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Leonard Ewaoldt of Scottsville, Va. and China Lake, Calif, who was riding Chilly, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Duffey, Jr.

Form Reversal

Dear Sir:

Neville Dunn's appropriate comments touching, on racing's unenviable status as the orphan among sports in a country where the presidential candidates of both parties make a point of attending baseball and football games, struck me most favorably at a time when I was still thinking with mixed emotions about Don Larsen's incredible pitching in the fifth World Series game after being knocked out of the box (by the same batters) three days before.

Without intending to minimize Larsen's fine ballplaying, I nevertheless have concluded that if a mere race horse were ever guilty of a comparable reversal in form, there would be an immediate howl set up for a congressional investigation; the FBI, the narcotics bureau and the internal revenue department all would have a hand in the case within 24 hours; the unlucky animal itself would be cut up into chunks one inch square for purposes of an autopsy, and the owner, trainer, jockey and any grooms who could not beat the posse to the Mexican border would be loaded unceremoniously into the handiest patrol wagon and sent to Alcatraz.

by 1 3/4 lengths. Ambehaving was getting ten pounds from Reneged which carried 130.

Oh Johnny and Motor Line accounted for the other two money positions in the order listed.

The Roamer was worth $40,700, so Third Brother (*Princequillo-Hildene, by Bubbling Over) has season's earnings of $87,100. He won the Long Island Handicap in October and has 5 victories to his name in 1956, as well as 2 seconds and 5 thirds.

Third Brother was bred by his owner and is trained by J. H. "Casey" Hayes.

EVERYTHING ON HUNTING HORSES, RACING AND POLO Old and New

SYDNEY R. SMITH Canaan, New York one who wasn't even on the meeting could have gotten squared away by wagering on Rare Treat.

That four-year-old filly rewarded customers with $38.40 for $2 after giving them heart failure in a stretch struggle with Amoret. Her margin at the eighth pole was a head and at the wire it was a nose.

But even that wasn't enough. Hartack, Amoret's rider, claimed a foul and there was quite a spell of agony before the "official" sign was hung out.

Manotick, which the stewards decided caused the crowding, finished third and Searching was fourth.

The Vineland was worth $42,900 to Mr. George D. Widener, owner of Rare Treat. As she had picked up $34,200 in earlier 1956 efforts, his total now stands at $37,100.

She took the Philadelphia Turf Handicap and 2 other races before the Vineland, and she has been third twice.

Last season she earned $72,750.

W. F. Mulholland trains her. R. Mikkonen is her regular rider.

The chestnut filly is by Stymie, from Rare Perfume, by Eight Thirty. Erdenheim Farms, Inc. bred her.

Short Takes of Late Stakes

Federal Hill scored in the Kentucky Jockey Club Stakes, at Churchill on November 10.

Cousin Conwon the Jeanne d'Arc Stakes (November 10) at Narragansett.

IRISH LUCK

The traditional "luck o' the Irish" held for the Sunday night individual international jumping class at the National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden, the only "money" class in the show for the international riders.

Lt. William A. Ringrose and Lt. Thomas Moroney were among six who tied for fourth, fifth and sixth places. The six riders selected to toss for places instead of jumping off, and Ringrose drew fourth place and Moroney fifth. They must've had shamrocks in their pockets.

Meanwhile, Lt. Patrick 1. Kiernan of the Irish Team had tied for first with two other riders, and came in third on the jump-off. So when the winners lined up for their awards, the entire Irish team was in the line-up in consecutive order third, fourth and fifth places. Between the three, they won $400.

It was good to see Lt. Col. Dan Corry back again as nonriding captain of the team. He had ridden for Ireland for many years, the last time being in 1952 when he accounted for several of the Irish victories.

TENSE HACK-OFF AT VALLEY FORGE

The atmosphere was tense in the Valley Forge junior championship hackoff as both contenders had previous legs on the challenge trophy. William Babb's Double Scotch gained his second leg on the trophy in two years and Debbie Buchanan, who was champion in '54 and reserve to Double Scotch last year, had to settle for reserve once again....First Mate continued to go consistently for Fox Valley Farms with the same net result - another green working tricolor - presented this time to Frederick M. Mitchell (owner of Fox Valley) in person.

BILL BLANCHARD

Out with the Spring Valley Hounds of New Vernon, New Jersey on November 3rd, the Honorary Secretary Bill Blanchard, unfortunately had a fall and was kicked in the jaw by his mount. He was taken to the Morristown Memorial Hospital and is said to be progressing satisfactorily.

MARSHALL FIELD III DIES

Marshall Field III died on November 8th at a New York hospital, following brain surgery. Mr. Field was a widely known philanthropist and head of Field Enterprises. His home, Caumsett, in Huntington, L. I. has often been the scene of junior horse shows in the Long Island area, where his daughters, Phyllis and Fiona, are prominent in equestrian circles. Mr. Field took an interest in polo, foxhunting, racing and was particularly interested in philanthropy and social service. M. T.

18-year-old Michael Page of Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., the winner of the finals in the AHSA Medal Class, Hunting Seat, at the recent National Horse Show in Madison Square Garden, sailed Saturday, November 10th on the French liner "Liberte" for a 2 to 3 year stay in Europe. He will spend a month or two in England at Capt, F. E. Goldman's Cheshire Equestrian Training Center, where he studied horsemanship for 3 months during the summer of 1955 and will then proceed to the Frenchspeaking part of Switzerland with the dual purpose of learning the language and to continue his riding and jumping at one of the outstanding equestrian establishments of that country.

Later he plans to spend considerable time in Germany, Italy and other European countries to learn-besides the languagesas much as possible of their different riding and jumping techniques. H. W.

FULL BROTHERS AND SISTERS

Mr. H. C. Frankel has recently purchased from Al G. Davis of Beverly Hills, California, two geldings which are full brothers being by Jens Son out of Reset, by Upset. They were purchased as a present for his two daughters, (full sisters) "Pee Wee" and "Poncho" Frankel who are now showing them with success in the California circuit.

YELLOW FOR HUNTERS

Tests have recently been conducted jointly by the California Optometric Association, the Department of Fish and Game, the National Rifle Association and Army personnel at Fort Ord to determine what color should be worn by gunners so as to offer maximum visibility and thus avoid being shot by their fellow sportsmen. In three types of tests, either plain yellow or fluorescent yellow panels were spotted fastest and most accurately identified by the soldiers taking part including a group which was color blind. White was a close second, but red placed far down the list.

MISSED THE TURN

Typographical errors appear in most horse show programs and are seldom cause for comment. However, the listing of the B. R. Firestone's open horse in the Garden catalog is one of the most amusing and unique misprints I've encountered, Instead of appearing correctly as Countryside LANE, the mare was listed in the program as Countryside ROAD. ACE OF DIAMONDS SOLD

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Clarkson of Saint Louis, Missouri purchased Ace of Diamonds at the National Horse Show in New York City, from Mr. and Mrs. Grover Stephens. The 4-year-old gelding was Green Conformation Hunter Champion at Harrisburg (Penna. National H. S.) this year and won The Jockey Club Cup Class and the Middle and Heavyweight Green Class at the National. He will be shown at the Royal Winter Fair by Mr. Kenneth Winchell.
